In the year 1856, the school building which stood on the site of the present Crang Building was completed. It was named after its principal, and was called the McCorkle School Building. In 1869 the first Clinton High School was built on the site of the present Junior High Building and was called Washington School. The present West Building was completed in 1909, and the Junior High and Industrial Arts Building were built in 1916. The Clinton Community High School was organized in 1920 and the gymnasium was built in 1935. In 1948, C. C. H. S. became part of Clinton Community Unit District No. 15. The new East Building, Industrial Arts, and North Gym were added to the school in 1956. The Junior High School moved from Washington School to the East Building in this same year.

Our school, Clinton Community High School, has grown very dear to every one of us throughout the years. Each student will remember all of the fun and excitement he had participating in the many activities. These things have made a deep imprint on our hearts which will remain there forever. We shall always remember C. C. H. S. as our dear and beloved Alma Mater.

In Honor Of . . .

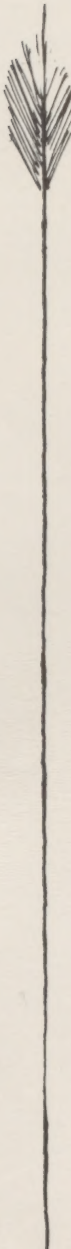

As a tribute to her hard work and understanding help, we, the Clintonia Staff, wish to dedicate our 1961 Clintonia to our sponsor, Mrs. Lotella Cole.

Mrs. Cole has been teaching shorthand and typing here at C. C. H. S. for the past five years, and during this time she has acted as sponsor of the yearbook staff.

It is with great privilege that we take this opportunity to show our appreciation for her endless time and service that she has contributed toward the success of this 1961 annual and those of the last four years by dedicating our year's work to her.

Mollie O'Shaughnessey, a 3-act comedy drama, was performed Thursday afternoon, November 17, 1960, to a grade school audience and Friday, November 18, at a capacity-crowd evening performance. It is a story of the West before it was fenced in, laid in Oregon, in the 1890's.

Mollie (Linda Wood), the 17 year-old daughter of Sheriff Mike O'Shaughnessey (Joe Meeks), is devoted to her father and to her half-brother, Jed (Larry Junkins), Jed is not worthy of their respect and brings grief to Mollie and the Sheriff. Pete Shippley (Carl Sutton), taciturn and loyal, and Olaf Hansen (Rick Taylor), an excitable Swede, are deputies of Sheriff Mike.

Pat Clancy (Gary Riegel), a U. S. Marshall come to help the Sheriff capture a band of cattle thieves, soon falls in love with Mollie. Katie Raymond (Janet Ransom), Mollie's 16 year old friend is bashfully courted and won by Harve Dietrich (Larry Bostwick). Mrs. Raymond (Ann Jenkins), Katie's mother, is a friend to the family and a big help with the motherless O'Shaughnessey family. Mrs. Loftus (Marilyn Webb), another neighbor, is more interested in everyone else's business than in helping. Tessie and Amanda Weisheimer (Phyllis Hanna and Ruth Ann Florey) are bouncing, pink-cheeked teen-agers intent upon enjoying themselves at Mollie's dance. Fred Beanis (Louis Rolofson) is an Easterner come West to raise chickens.

The MARGOL, which is printed bi-weekly, is given free to all pupils in the unit. A circulation of 2600 includes exchange newspapers from fifty other high schools throughout the country, from Las Vegas, Nev., to Fort Myers, Fla. Sixty-eight businesses in and around Clinton advertise in the Margol.

The staff meets daily in the afternoon for one hour to plan future issues and write stories. Most of the "leg work" is done outside this hour, however, as reporters cover their assignments. They interview people, double check spelling and other information, or take and develop pictures. Last year Quill and Scroll, the international Society for high school journalists, honored the Margol with a first place award for its activities during National Newspaper Week.

Clinton High School Foreign Exchange Student

Miss Rosemary Hellings, our exchange student from Capetown, South Africa, finds our school different from hers in many ways. She mentions that no boys attended her school in Africa and that all the girls wore uniforms. Before coming to the U.S. she had never seen wooden houses, snow, or any basketball, football, or baseball games. In her spare time in the winter, she enjoys sledding and skating; in the summer, she has gone swimming and horseback riding. Rosemary says that she likes our school very much and the students are very friendly. We have enjoyed going to school with her this year and we will be sorry to see her leave.

Japanese Panorama

The night long anticipated had finally arrived, the night of the Junior-Senior Banquet-Prom. The theme, Dixieland Memories, was shown by a mural plantation scene, an old fashioned wishing well, a large magnolia tree, and a bridge along with a beautiful realistic waterfall. Pastel green, pink, and yellow streamers completed the decorations.
